		dated 25 March 1826. Vellum, signed, sealed and stamped.
534	1790	Recovery in the Court of Common Pleas, Westminster on 31 George III, of a messuage, 3 gardens, 20 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture and half a messuage, 3 gardens, 20 acres of land, 10 acres of meadow, 10 acres of pasture and common of pasture in Upper and Lower Elkstone and Warslow, Alstonfield, Staffordshire. William Goodwin brought the suit against John Kinderley claiming that after it had unjustly been seized by Hugh Hunt, Kinderley had seized it. Kinderley defended himself by calling William Grindon as vouchee. The parties were represented by their attorneys Rowland Leekbarrow, George Byard and Robert Long. And Thomas Francis Martin. After going through the ritual of claims and adjournment, Goodwin achieves a decision in his favour and asks the court for a writ of seisin to the Sheriff of Staffordshire. A footnote states that the sheriff had taken the action requester. Vellum with heavily decorated borders and a large seal in a can which has become detached.
